Income Survey

The District has entered into an agreement with Rural Community Assistance Corporation (RCAC) to conduct an Income Survey of its customers. The purpose of this survey is to establish a median household income which will then be used to explore funding options for upcoming capital projects. Additional information with more details will be provided in the near future.

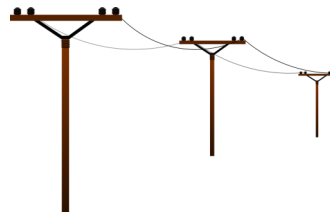

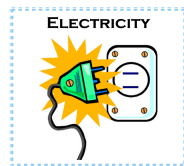

Office Conversion Project - CIP 14450

The Office Conversion Project is a small construction project creating a new customer lobby area at the District Office. The District awarded this project to North Valley Builders SC, Inc. Construction is anticipated to begin in November or early December.

UPDATE on the Carr Fire

During the Carr Fire, a number of District facilities were damaged. The District has been working diligently with Cal OES to obtain assistance in funding various repairs throughout the District. As of today three of the projects have been funded. Repairs will begin soon.

PGE Power Outages & Continued Water Supply

Should PGE decide to conduct a Public Safety Power Shutoff Plan, Centerville CSD has taken precautions to ensure a safe and reliable water supply for public health and safety. Customers should experience no changes to their water supply.

It is important to note that customers relying upon a booster pump for their water service will need to take additional measures to ensure their water supply.

Please call the District Office at 530-246-0680 should you have any questions.

Did You Know.....

1. That the First Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade contained Central Park Zoo animals? The Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade was originally called the "Macy's Christmas Parade" to kick off the holiday shopping season, according to AM New York. Held in 1924, the first parade included a menagerie of circus mainstays, including monkeys, bears, camels, and elephants, all borrowed from the Central park Zoo, instead of the traditional character balloons.
2. That the Wishbone Tradition is much older than Thanksgiving? Turkey wishbones are commonly used in a good-luck tradition on Thanksgiving. Usually, the practice consists of two people tugging on either end of the brittle bone while silently making a wish until it breaks. It is said that whoever wins the larger piece will have their wish granted. This tradition dates back to the Etruscan civilization circa 322 B.C. The Romans brought the tradition with them when they conquered England, and the English colonists then proceeded to carry the tradition to America.
3. That the Pilgrims did not have fresh butter because they did not have any cows. Cows did not arrive in the New World until the Dutch brought them in 1624.
4. That President Thomas Jefferson refused to declare Thanksgiving as a holiday. Presidents originally had to declare Thanksgiving a holiday every year. History says Jefferson refused to recognize the event, because he strongly believed in the separation of church and state. Since Thanksgiving involved prayer and reflection, the president thought making it a national holiday would violate the First Amendment. He also thought it was better suited as a state holiday, not a federal one. But he never really explained himself to the public, so he went down in history as an anti-Thanksgiving leader.
